NEW SERMON SERIES

Today is the start of a new sermon series based on a book written by Steve Chalke - Apprentice: Walking the Way of Christ.

This is a very challenging book which goes to the root and the heart of what it means to be a follower of Christ. Using memorable stories and parables, which will keep coming back to challenge long after the book is read, the author shows how we are to be, to think and to act if we are really to follow in the footsteps of Christ.

He makes the distinction between 'student'; one who learns from a teacher and 'apprentice'; one who so closely follows in his master's footsteps that his whole life mirrors that of the master.

Each week we will be looking at a different topic and discovering how this can impact on our own walk with Christ.

Are you ready for the challenge?

BREAKFAST, BANNERS & BANTER

8.15-9.30am Saturday 16th May

Please come along to our first breakfast meeting when we will be planning craft activities for the church.

The 70th Anniversary of the Victory in Europe

As part of the commemorations for the 70th Anniversary of VE Day churches are being invited to join in with a ringing of bells during the weekend of Friday 8th - Sunday 10th May.

Bells were silent during the war. They were reserved to warn of invasion. So they were asked to ring out to celebrate the peace in Europe on VE Day 1945.

Here at St Peter's we are marking the occasion by ringing the bells at 11am on Saturday 9th May
