NEXT SUNDAY...

Churches in Swadlincote join together at Pingle School to celebrate Pentecost

PENTECOST SUNDAY will see churches across Swadlincote gathering together to worship at a school.

The event on Sunday, May 24, will take place at Pingle School with the joint service beginning at 10.30am.

The churches hope the opportunity will be the chance to celebrate all their work across the community, including in local primary and secondary schools, as well as celebrating the 'coming of the Holy Spirit'.

The head teacher of Pingle School, Viv Sharples, will also be joining the churches for their joint service.

After the service, Reverend Mike Firbank the vicar for Church Gresley, would like to invite the congregation to go to Emmanuel Church with a picnic lunch to either eat together outside on the grass weather permitting, or inside their church hall.

Update on Breakfast, Banners and Banter

IT WAS GREAT to see 17 ladies turn up for our first meeting. Thank you to Katie, Chantelle and Sandra for getting up early to come and get things ready.

We enjoyed a delicious breakfast of cereal, toast and pastries and then discussed what we would be doing over the coming months in preparation for the Craft Day on Saturday November 14th. Put this date in your diaries! We are hoping that many people from the local community will come along to support this venture. All profits will go to St Giles Hospice, a local charity.

We then split up into two groups – crafters and banner makers and lots of ideas flowed. Do not be surprised if the old banners are taken down over the next few weeks – we have plans to replace them!

We have decided to meet on the first Saturday of every month. Our next meeting will be on Saturday 6th June at 8.15am. Please invite your friends to come along for breakfast for the first half an hour followed by an hour of practical crafting.
