Prayer for today

Lord of heaven and earth,
as Jesus taught his disciples to be persistent in prayer,
give us patience and courage never to lose hope,
but always to bring our prayers before you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Another item of interest, this time from:

Hartshorne Parish Magazine
November 1903

MONDAY, Nov. 2nd, broke cloudy and depressing; but we hoped that the sun was reserving itself to shine later on, when the Bishop arrived to unveil our Memorial Window to the late Rector, the Rev. H. W. Buckley. We were, however, doomed to disappointment; for about 11.30, steady rain commenced, and with almost no intermission it came down heavily all day.

The Bishop of Southwell arrived in good time for the Service at 3 o'clock; and in spite of the weather the Church was nearly full; but it was very disappointing to know how very large a number of Parishioners and other friends were prevented from coming by the pouring rain.

The Service consisted of Choral Evensong, with special Psalm and Lessons. Most of the Choir were able to give their services, and the singing was considered very good. After the 3rd Collect the Bishop offered up some appropriate prayers, and proceeded to unveil the Window, which is a very beautiful one. It has been designed by Mr. G. F. Bodley, and executed by Messrs. Burlison & Grylls, and consists of three lights, the Crucifixion in the centre, and the- Blessed Virgin and St. John on either side.

After the unveiling the Bishop gave us an interesting and instructive address, taking for his text the motto underneath our Lord's Figure in the Central Light— "So God loved the World"

The Offertory was collected during the singing of the beautiful hymn, "For all thy Saints," and was given towards paying the debt still remaining on the Restoration of the Church, which amounted to just about £100. Great was the delight of the Parishioners to hear a little later in the evening that the whole debt was cleared off, chiefly owing to the generosity of the Bishop who put £100 into the Offertory.

A very hearty peal of Bells by the Ringers announced to the Parish the general rejoicing.

After the Service we all adjourned to the Old Boys' School, and partook of a most refreshing and beautifully-arranged tea prepared and presided over by the Ladies' Committee.

Finally we returned to our homes, dripping but cheerful, and can only hope that nobody will be the Worse for the kind efforts they made.
