The Diocesan Vocations Day
is on Saturday 8th October
at
St Barnabas Danesmoor,
Chesterfield
10am-3pm

Could God be prompting you to...
Explore your faith more deeply?
Use your skills and gifts in the church?
Then come along to our Vocation Day to meet with others who are exploring God's call. All Christians are called by God, by virtue of our baptism, to enjoy his love, to love God in return and to serve God and others in our lives. Another way of describing our 'calling' is to talk about 'vocation', a word which comes from the Latin word "vocare" meaning 'to call'.
Vocation doesn't just apply to those people who are called to authorised ministry. We all have a vocation to witness to the transforming love of God through worship and service to others, using the gifts that God has given them. Bishop Alastair and the Vocations Team will be delighted to see you. Refreshments will be served but please bring your own lunch.

Update from Abbey

I began my Lay Reader Training this month with an initial meet up at the end of August, and my lessons began on Thursday 8th September. I had to submit a piece of homework prior to beginning the course, and although it seemed a daunting task I did complete this. This was marked and returned to me with some very positive feedback. I'm really excited now as I begin this journey and will keep you updated as I progress. Many thanks for all the support I've had from all my Christian family as I begin this new challenge in Jesus' name.
