This week's service

Today's Remembrance Sunday Service is led by Sean O'Toole with Sandra O'Toole preaching

We welcome all who gather to remember the fallen

A thought from Sean

There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends. John 15:13 (NLT)

Today, around the nation people will remember the sacrifice made by the armed forces and support services in times of war. It is always a day tinged with sadness and yet a day of hope as we recall women and men who have given their all to ensure our safety and freedom. For many months we have seen countless people putting others before themselves and that generous spirit and positive action has contributed much to the nations' health, safety and well-being. Today is a good day to remember all those who work tirelessly and sacrificially for the good of others.

Prayer for this week

Father bless those in the armed forces who continue to serve us by faithfully carrying out essential work to keep us safe. Please strengthen our nurses, doctors, care workers and all who serve their communities. Pray for their protection, safety and good health. We pray that as a nation we will pull together, not apart, so that united in prayer and action we will become known throughout the world as a people who care about and for others. Amen

The Churchyard Memorial Cross

was erected in 1921 so it has been 100 years since villagers have gathered to remember the fallen at this place. You can see a copy of the service for the dedication of the memorial cross on the display at the back of church.

The National Anthem was sung at that service just as we will do this morning.

God save our gracious Queen!
Long live our noble Queen!
God save the Queen!
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the Queen.
