This week's reading

The preacher for today's service is Rev Mike Firbank

Luke 10: 25-37

A thought from Mike

Friends, one of our late Queen's favourite stories was this one.

Let's explore why, as we remember an extraordinary woman.

Today's Bible Message – Luke 10: 25-37

A message from Henrietta at Open Doors

Please join me in praying over the coming days and weeks:

- Praise God for Queen Elizabeth's Christian witness and pray that, as people across the world reflect on her life and legacy, her faith in Jesus will spark faith in others
- That the Lord will continue to raise up leaders like Queen Elizabeth to be salt and light throughout the world
- For King Charles to know God's comfort as he mourns, and to seek God's wisdom as he starts his reign
- That the new Prime Minister and her cabinet will govern wisely and use their influence to defend Christian freedom around the world.

Father God, we thank You for the life of Your daughter Elizabeth. We are grateful for her dedicated service and for the hope she brought to so many. May the seeds of her testimony have a plentiful harvest, and may reflection upon her life lead others to Jesus. Bless and equip King Charles III so that, as Defender of the Faith, he may reign in line with heaven, doing everything in his power to strengthen the church in the UK and around the world. Amen.

In collaboration with our District Council, we will be holding
