This week's reading

Welcome to today's service on this special Coronation weekend led by Rev Sam Mackie
with Rev Bex Allpress

1 Peter 2:2-10

A thought from Bex

The reading this week is 1 Peter 2:2-10. In verses 4 and 5, it says "4 Come to him, a living stone... 5 like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house"

Spend some time this week considering how Jesus forms the foundation stone upon which every living stone is placed for the purpose of building God's Kingdom on earth. As a living stone, how does your everyday life witness to the amazing works of the Lord?

Prayer for the week

Blessed are you, Lord Jesus, for as you were sent by the Father, so you send us.
Equip Charles our King and all your people with the gifts to fulfil our calling,
that we may love as you loved,
serve as you served,
and willingly follow wherever you lead.
Blessed be God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Amen

So our King and Queen have at last been crowned. And His Majesty's activity since his Coronation proves how thorough as well as how rapid his recovery has been. It was a great satisfaction to read his touching letter to his people, and to see how clearly he recognised the fact that his recovery was an answer to his people's prayers. Long may lie live to use his restored life for the glory of God and the welfare of His people. God save the King.

Two weeks ago I included a piece from an old parish magazine which explained how the 1902 Coronation was delayed.

The September 1902 edition of the parish magazine included the news of the actual Coronation of Edward VII.

Newspaper coverage only in those days!
