

This week's service

Welcome to today's Remembrance Service led by Sandra O'Toole with Sean O'Toole preaching

Sunday 12th November 2023

This week's reading

John 15: 9-15

A thought from Sean

Let us not forget. Today we remember the sacrifice made by so many for our freedom. It is a day to give thanks for the faithfulness of our armed forces and emergency services. Older people may become frustrated if they can't remember where they put things. But when asked about the past, deep memories of old adventures and important life moments come flooding back. How easy it is to forget what God has done for us. Remembering his faithfulness over the years is a discipline we need to learn. For when we face trials of every kind those memories of God's faithfulness over the years can sustain us.

IN SILENCE

By IRENE H. LEWIS

In silence all the loveliest words are said,
In silence breaks a flower's exquisite head,
Like a rare casket opened by the sun –
In silence all the noblest deeds are done.
In silence steal good thoughts to the still heart
And draw it further from the world apart.
In silence anger dies and peace is sealed:
it is a power that only heroes wield.
In silence Love draws near and Sleep is furled
In silence as it holds the weary world.
While Silence stays the noise of nations
When it reigns in memory of gallant men.

Poppies.

Prayer for the week

God, our refuge and strength, bring near the day when wars shall cease
and poverty and pain shall end, that earth may know the peace of heaven
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

Weekly Prayer Meeting

We meet each Thursday from 7- 8pm at Nige and Deb's home,
3 Sharpwood Manor.

These are exciting meetings and each week they're led by a different member of the group.

Not everyone who comes prays aloud, so don't be nervous about that.

The important thing is to be part of it.
