Data Protection

The law around how organisations (including churches) are allowed to make use of your personal data is changing. There is much more emphasis on making sure that people's explicit consent has been given for different types of communication. To make sure that we comply with the law we will be asking everyone that we get in touch with to complete and sign a form, which will be available over the next few weeks. This includes if you get emails from us, if you are on the prayer chain and so on.

The forms will be available from next week, so do please make sure that you complete one.
