UPDATE FROM ABBEY

This update is with thanks to my fellowship at Hartshorne.

So, I finally finished my Lay Reader Training in June this year. What a year! At one point, due to health reasons I didn't quite believe I was going to make it. With God's love and will I did. I passed, so my new journey in Readership begins. I'm being licensed at Derby Cathedral on Saturday 8th September 2018.

What a brilliant birthday present from God. I'd love to see as many of you wonderful people, who can make it, there to share this Spiritual Blessings to be bestowed on me. However, if you can't, don't worry. I will see you all for the Sunday service on the morning of 9th September, which will be followed by a shared lunch in the Church hall.

Again, thank you all for your prayers and love you surrounded me with, and I promise, under God's guidance to represent Him, our parish and you: Brothers & Sister's in Christ: to the best of the ability He has given me as a gift to work with.

God Bless

Abbey

KNITWITS

Our next meeting will be on Saturday 1st September 10am - 12noon in the church. The church will already be open to visitors that morning so we may get some extra interest! If you haven't been to one of our Knitwits meetings before you are very welcome to join us. There are many people who have been busy knitting for us so it would be good for us to all get together.

SINGING GROUP

We will be starting again at 6.30 - 7.30pm on Thursdays in September to practise for Christmas. If you would like to join us (no audition necessary, males and females welcome, no previous experience required!) please have a word with Sandra.

How much do you know about the history of your church? Even if you know very little we have a lot of information already available so why not get involved so that we can share our history with visitors.

Churchyard Trail

We now have a Churchyard Trail so that people can explore the churchyard and discover some fascinating facts. The trail will be available in laminated format so that copies can be kept in the porch and used at any time. Why not do the trail yourself?

If you can help on the 15th September by welcoming visitors or serving refreshments please sign the list at the back of church.

THANK YOU!
