

This week's service

Today's service is led by Debbie Patrick with Nigel Worth preaching

Trinity Sunday 12th June

This week's reading

Psalms 25

A thought from Nigel

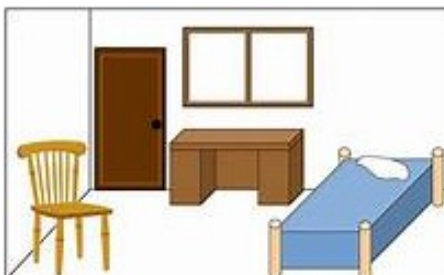

This week I wanted us to explore the psalms, one in particular, and encourage you to spend more time in this amazing book.

As you're probably aware the psalms are songs or choruses of the time, written about God, his grace and favour, love and experiences of the writers. Some psalms can be dark and desperate, reflecting the writer's "real" experience of life that they face. Many of these psalms have been adapted and re-written into modern worship songs that too can reflect our reality in our day to day life.

Take some time to consider these psalms and current songs we use that may reflect a time in which they have helped and encouraged you. I'll talk a little more about this when I share and in future weeks as I see these wonderful words can be a real encouragement to us all, even in those dark times of despair....

Supporting Ukrainian Refugees

Our local CVS, a local landlord and SDDC are supporting up to five families having fled the Ukraine. The landlord has now freed one property and the first family is due to arrive in the next two weeks. (2 Adults and 1 Teenage Boy, plus their dog).

The property is however empty and needs pretty much everything.

If you can help please contact Petra (she runs the local Foodbank hub).

Prayer for Trinity Sunday

Holy God,
faithful and unchanging:
enlarge our minds with the knowledge
of your truth,
and draw us more deeply into the
mystery of your love,
that we may truly worship you,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever
Amen

Would you like to enjoy a cup of tea or coffee after the service?

HELP NEEDED

We have started serving refreshments again but still need more volunteers willing to go on the rota.

If you would like help, please have a word with Sean or Nigel

LOCAL HISTORY

Over the Jubilee Bank Holiday the family history website Findmypast offered free access to historical newspapers. Not wanting to miss such an opportunity I searched for items of news that featured Hartshorne. Here are some of the interesting snippets that I found:

DIED

On Friday morning last, in consequence of a fall from his carriage, aged 57, the Rev. Francis Tunnicliffe, Rector of Hartshorne, Derbyshire. He was highly respected by a numerous body of acquaintance, and will be long and deeply lamented by that flock, which for thirty years had been committed to his pastoral care.
