

Sunday 15th September

WELCOME

This week's service

This morning's service is led by Debbie Patrick

This week's reading

Mark 8:27-end

A thought from Debbie

After reading this passage spend some time putting yourself into the story...

Imagine that you have no idea what will happen next, you only know what has happened up to the point of this conversation.

How would you feel, listening to Jesus describe what was about to happen? What would you say to Jesus, do you think you would agree with Peter?

Read the passage again and ask God to talk to you about how it makes you feel.

Prayer for the week

Lord God

Because without you we are nothing

Would you come by your Holy Spirit

to direct and rule our hearts.

Would you inspire our actions and create in us a willingness to serve you

Every day of our lives. Amen

The ever open door complete with flowers...

Damson Jam

On Monday. Andrew and I picked about 700 damsons from trees in the grounds of Lichfield Cruising Club where we moor our boat.

I have now made more than 30 jars of damson jam to raise funds for SDYfC.

If you would like some I suggest a donation of £3 a jar

Thank you Jane

Hartshorne Cubs Gardening Project

This is what we achieved tonight. Any help and support from locals would be amazing, to water and maintain... We are so proud.

A message from Abbey

Ed & I had to change our plans, so had to move before we left for our holiday on 4th September.

Thank you to all who offered to help on the 20th September; much appreciated, yet not needed now.

Ed & I would also like to say a huge thank you to our family at St Peter's Hartshorne, for their amazing love and support when we needed it. You will always be our family in Christ.

God Bless you all.

Abbey & Eddie
