Philippians 4: 4 -9

A Thought from Sean

Paul tells us to 'Rejoice always.' This is not the easiest thing to do especially when our lives are pressed down by the circumstances around us. God given joy springs from our relationship with Jesus, which should not be dependent on external circumstances. Joy is an essential part of the Christian's life; it is a gift of the Holy Spirit that provides strength in difficult times. To cultivate this supernatural joy, we need to learn how to develop and rely on a deeper relationship with Father God through all those ups and downs of life. Jesus promised each one of us who trusts in Him, the gift of abundant life.

Prayer for the week

God for whom we watch and wait, you sent John the Baptist to prepare the way of your Son: give us courage to speak the truth,
to hunger for justice,
and to suffer for the cause of right, with Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

THE TREE by Faith Forster

The room lay still and silent, only the sweet high tinkling music of innumerable fragile spheres rang out their joyful message from the tree ...

which winked and glowed in radiancy its branches heavy with the weight of light and deeper gift-wrapped burdens in its heart ...

And one small child crept softly into the darkened room to stand apart and gaze in silence at the sight, speechless in awe and wonder at this alien tree that fruited light and splendid mystery ...

As long ago another child first opened wide His eyes in gloom and saw a light no other eyes could see, He also was transfixed in heart long long before His body knew that rooting to the ground ...

The Word was silent then as down the years the distant hidden music reached His infant ears, and by the shining of His natal star in that dim corner of the world's own night He saw a tree all radiant with light, its dark, moist branches glistening

from afar,
and He Himself the red-wrapped gift that hung there heavily ...

Yet on that still and holy night when first He looked upon the sight
He did not turn his face away from his own Christmas tree, that waited for His gift to you and me ...

1 Corinthians 13 - a Christmas Version

If I decorate my house perfectly with plaid bows, strands of twinkling lights and shiny balls, but do not show love to my family, I'm just another decorator. If I slave away in the kitchen, baking dozens of Christmas cookies, preparing gourmet meals and arranging a beautifully adorned table at mealtime, but do not show love to my family, I'm just another cook. If I work at the soup kitchen, carol in the nursing home and give all that I have to charity, but do not show love to my family, it profits me nothing. If I trim the spruce with shimmering angels and crocheted snowflakes, attend a myriad of holiday parties and sing in the choir's cantata but do not focus on Christ, I have missed the point.

Love stops the cooking to hug the child. Love sets aside the decorating to kiss the husband. Love is kind, though harried and tired. Love doesn't envy another's home that has coordinated Christmas china and table linens. Love doesn't yell at the kids to get out of the way but is thankful they are there to be in the way. Love doesn't give only to those who are able to give in return but rejoices in giving to those who can't. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails. Video games will break, pearl necklaces will be lost, golf clubs will rust, but giving the gift of love will endure. Merry Christmas and lots of love to you and yours!
