Today's Reading

Ephesians 2:1-10

A Thought from Sean

The book of Ephesians unfolds a transformative account of humanity's journey from death to life, division to unity, and strangers to citizens of God's kingdom. This chapter sheds light on God's immense love and grace, offering salvation to everyone through faith in Jesus Christ. No matter how good we may think we are, Paul, who wrote this book, reminds us that our salvation is not possible through our efforts but is made possible through Father God's unearned kindness towards the whole of humankind. As the song says, 'He's a Good, Good Father.'

Prayer for the week

Heavenly Father,
at the Jordan you revealed Jesus
as your Son:
may we recognize him as our Lord
and know ourselves to be your beloved children;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.
Amen

Recycling stamps for Alzheimer's Society

Don't forget to save your used postage stamps – especially any Christmas ones. Please leave at least 1/2 inch around each one so the backing can be removed.

There's a box on the table at the back of church to put your stamps in.

Thank you. Gwen

Ewe in a pew

At the Christmas Day service I sat next to Alison, who was on holiday from her work at Scargill House. I remarked on the small sheep sitting on the seat next to her and she told me all about it.

Most people will have heard of "Elf on the Shelf" but this was "Ewe in a Pew". She is a little Fairtrade sheep bought in the gift shop and Alison has named her Eunice. She goes everywhere with Alison and has been snapped in all sorts of locations.

Elf on the shelf is only at Christmas but Ewe in a pew is for life.

You can see her exploits by watching this reel on Facebook.

The Rector's Letter from the Parish Magazine January 1950

Dear Friends and Parishioners,
 And so another year has gone, my first word is one of grateful thanks to all who have given of their time, energy and means to the work of God in the parish during 1949. We have been busy and found much joy in the work, but God alone knows what has been achieved spiritually. Are we as individuals and as a Church in a better position than we were when the year commenced? Has our devotion to our Lord grown deeper, and has our love for Him shown itself in an attitude to, and thought for other people? Ask yourself these questions and then, as 1950 begins, seek God's Grace afresh that the year may hold for you a more abounding joy and usefulness. We were grieved to know that Mrs. Robinson and Miss M. Bailey were victims of the motor crash at Overseal, but we rejoiced that their lives were spared. Our friends have served our village with distinction and devotion; we pray that they will make a complete recovery. This has involved much hard work to Mr. T. E. Orton and Mrs. Statham, who have carried on valiantly, the difficulty being the shortage of teachers in the county. We anticipate this will quickly be rectified. It was a joy and pleasure to see how the children have entered into the spirit of the Christmas Festival in school and in Church, they certainly appreciate the effort expended.

Thank you, teachers and parents. The Christmas Tree was described by the following "superlatives" - "smashing," "wizard," "splendiferous," etc. I wish you a happy New Year.

HERBERT LOGAN.
